The 25th October 1909.

From the 13th November next till further notice, the complete Gazette of India will be published at Calcutta. After the 6th November all notifications and other matter intended for publication in the Gazette should be addressed to the Publisher, 8, Hastings Street, Calcutta.

Attention is invited to the following Circular Memorandum of the Government of India, Home Department, of August 1901 :—

"It has been brought to the notice of this Department that matter for the Gazette of India is sometimes sent to the Press late on Friday evenings for publication in the next day's Gazette, and that this involves considerable inconvenience to the Press and expense to Government. In the Circular Memorandum of this Department, No. 777—79, dated 9th February 1870, the Government of India directed that all notifications or other matter intended for insertion in the Gazette of India should be delivered at the Press not later than 2 P.M. on Friday, and that any papers sent thereafter must be certified to be extremely urgent in order to ensure their appearance in the next day's Gazette. The undersigned is directed to request that these orders may be more strictly observed in future, and that Departments will refrain from sending to the Press as extremely urgent any papers which can without harm or inconvenience be held over for the next Gazette."

J. P. HEWETT,

Secretary to the Government of India.

GAZETTE OF INDIA.

NOTICE.

The 25th October 1909.

From the 13th November next till further notice, the complete Gazette of India will be published at Calcutta. After the 6th November all notifications and other matter intended for publication in the Gazette should be addressed to the Publisher, 8, Hastings Street, Calcutta.

Attention is invited to the following Circular Memorandum of the Government of India, Home Department, of August 1901 :—

"It has been brought to the notice of this Department that matter for the Gazette of India is sometimes sent to the Press late on Friday evenings for publication in the next day's Gazette, and that this involves considerable inconvenience to the Press and expense to Government. In the Circular Memorandum of this Department, No. 777—79, dated 9th February 1870, the Government of India directed that all notifications or other matter intended for insertion in the Gazette of India should be delivered at the Press not later than 2 P.M. on Friday, and that any papers sent thereafter must be certified to be extremely urgent in order to ensure their appearance in the next day's Gazette. The undersigned is directed to request that these orders may be more strictly observed in future, and that Departments will refrain from sending to the Press as extremely urgent any papers which can without harm or inconvenience be held over for the next Gazette."

J. P. HEWETT,

Secretary to the Government of India.

NOTICES.

A consolidated subject matter index for the years 1900 to 1908 together with a chronological list of inventions in the years 1900 to 1904 has been published (October 1909) and may be obtained at the Patents office, price two rupees.

All communications relating to applications for leave to file specifications and for registration of designs under the Inventions and Designs Act, 1888 (V of 1888), or in continuation of such applications, should be addressed to the Patents Secretary, 2, Bankshall Street, Calcutta.

The Office of the Secretary under the Inventions and Designs Act, 1888, will in future be open for the transaction of business from 11 A.M. to 3 P.M. on all days, except Sundays and gazetted holidays.

The Government of India are advised that, as trade marks are not "designs" within the meaning of the Act, they cannot be registered under Part II.

The fees payable under the fourth and sixth schedules are now collected in cash, and applicants are warned that they must be responsible for any delay in cashing cheques.

Cheques and money orders will only be accepted if made payable at Calcutta to the Secretary under the Inventions and Designs Act.

Copies of the weekly notifications, and of the quarterly lists, of applications and specifications filed in the Secretary's Office are now on sale to the public at one anna and eight annas a copy, respectively. Consolidated indexes for 1905, 1906, 1907 and 1908, entitled "Inventions and Designs," are also on sale, price one rupee each. They contain a chronological list, subject-matter and name indexes of exclusive privileges for inventions, which have been obtained or applied for in the year, together with lists of designs applications.

All applications made under the Inventions and Designs Act, V of 1888, will from this date (December 19th, 1896) lie in the visitors' room of the Patents Office for ten days from the date of the Gazette of India in which their filing may have been notified: or if the 10th day is a holiday, till the evening of the office day next following.

At the time of delivering or sending an application for leave to file a specification, the applicant shall cause a duplicate copy of the application to be delivered or sent therewith to the Secretary.

The Inventions and Designs Act (V of 1888), with the notifications and rules issued under its provisions and the notices of the office of Inventions and Designs, to which is added an explanatory memorandum for the guidance of persons applying for protection of Inventions and Designs. A new and revised edition is now on sale. Royal 8vo volumes, paper cover, price one rupee or 1s. 6d. To be had of the Superintendent, Government Printing, 8, Hastings Street, Calcutta, or of the Superintendent, Patents Office, 2, Bankshall Street, Calcutta.

A copy of the Bill, which it is proposed to introduce to amend the law relating to the protection of Inventions and Designs, together with a statement of objects and reasons and notes on clauses, has been placed in the visitors' room of the Patents Office for inspection. Copies, price one rupee, may be obtained on application to the Superintendent, Patents Office, 2, Bankshall Street, Calcutta.

H. G. GRAVES,

Secretary under the Inventions and Designs Act V of 1888.

THE JUDICIAL COMMISSIONER IN BRITISH BALUCHISTAN.

NOTIFICATION.

Dated Quetta, the 1st November 1909.

No. 741-J.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 554 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), as extended to British Baluchistan and by section 90 (2) (b) of the British Baluchistan Civil Justice Regulation, 1896, and with the previous sanction of the Chief Commissioner of British Baluchistan, the Judicial Commissioner is pleased to make the following rules to regulate the procedure relating to the grant of copies and to the inspection of records in the Subordinate Courts:—

A.—Grant of copies of Records.

Definitions.

I. In these rules—

“Record” means and includes any portion of a record, and any document, map, plan, or other paper attached to or forming part of the record of any suit or appeal, inquiry, or trial, or other judicial proceeding in any Civil or Criminal Court.

N.B.—Correspondence that has not formed part of the Judicial proceedings in Court is not to be considered part of the record.

“Copyist” means and includes any person engaged for the purpose of making a copy or copies of any such record.

Provisions for supply of copies.

II. (i) Subject to all proper exceptions and to these rules, due provision shall be made for the supply of copies of the records of every Court, whether Civil or Criminal, other than the High Court or a District or Sessions Court—

- (a) at the head-quarters of the district in which such Court is situated, and
- (b) subject to the provisions of the next clause of this rule, at the place of sitting of every such Court which is situated at a distance of more than ten miles from such head-quarters.

(ii) Copies of the records of a Court of Small Causes or Cantonment Magistrate, or of a Court the place of sitting of which is situated at a distance of more than ten miles from the head-quarters of the district, may, subject to all proper exceptions and to these rules, be supplied at the place of sitting of such Court—

- (a) while the case, a copy of the record of which is applied for, is pending;
- (b) at any time before the record has been forwarded to the District Record office:

Provided that in the case of a Court of Small Causes or a Court of a Cantonment Magistrate having a record office of its own, copies of records of such Court may be supplied at the place of sitting of such Court at any time.

(iii) Copies of the records of a District or Sessions Court shall be supplied at the ordinary place of sitting of such Court.

Persons entitled to copies of records.

III. (i) A copy of a record may be granted in the manner prescribed by these rules to any person who, under the law for the time being in force, is entitled to receive it.

(ii) A plaintiff or a defendant in a suit is entitled, at any stage of the suit, to obtain copies of the record of the suit, including exhibits which have been put in and finally accepted by the Court as evidence.

N.B.—A party who has been ordered to file a written statement is not entitled, without the special permission of the Court, to take a copy of a written statement filed by another party until he has first filed his own.

(iii) A stranger to the suit may, after decree, obtain, as of course, copies of the plaint, written statements, affidavits, and petitions filed in the suit; and may, for sufficient reason shown to the satisfaction of the Court, obtain copies of any such documents before decree.

(iv) A stranger to the suit may also obtain, as of course, copies of judgments, decrees, or orders, at any time after they have been passed or made.

(v) A stranger to the suit has no right to obtain copies of exhibits put in evidence, except with the consent of the person by whom they were produced.

Applications for copies of records.

IV. (i) An application for a copy of a record may be made by any person entitled to a copy under rule III, or by any person authorised by any such person to act in his behalf.

Note.—The authority need not necessarily consist of a formal power-of-attorney, but the officer authorised to receive and deal with applications for copies must satisfy himself in such manner as he considers sufficient, that the person applying is either himself entitled to the copy applied for under rule III or has in fact been authorised to act for a person who is so entitled.

(ii) Applications for copies of records of District or Sessions Courts will be received by the chief ministerial officer for the time being of the Court, or other officer for the time being appointed by the District or Sessions Judge in that behalf.

(iii) Applications for copies of the records of Courts of Small Causes, or of Cantonment Magistrates, will be received by the chief ministerial officer for the time being of such Court: provided the record, a copy of which is applied for, is, at the time of the application, in the possession of such Court.

(iv) Applications for copies of records of any Civil or Criminal Courts other than the High Court, not provided for in clauses (ii) and (iii) of this rule, will be received, in the case of applications made at the head-quarters of a district, by the officer (being a Judicial officer) for the time being appointed by the Deputy Commissioner in that behalf; and in the case of applications for copies of records of Magistrates or Munsifs whose Courts are situated at a distance of more than ten miles from the head-quarters of the district, and made to such Courts, by the Magistrate or Munsif a copy of whose record is applied for:

Provided that an application for a copy of a record of the High Court or of a District or Sessions Court, made to a lower Court or office in which the record may be at the time of the application, shall not be complied with without the permission of the Court concerned:

Provided further that applications for copies made to Magistrates or Munsifs whose Courts are situated at a distance of more than ten miles from the head-quarters of the district shall be returned for presentation at the head-quarters of the district, if the record has been transmitted to the District Record office.

Endorsement to be made on application, and registration thereof.

V. (i) Every officer receiving an application for a copy of a record shall—

- (a) endorse or cause to be endorsed thereon the date of presentation;
- (b) initial the endorsement;
- (c) cause the application to be registered as hereinafter provided; and
- (d) cause the Court-fee thereon to be cancelled according to law.

(ii) A register (in the Form A annexed to these rules) shall be maintained in which every application for a copy of a record shall, upon presentation, be forthwith entered by or under the orders of the officer receiving the same. Separate registers shall be kept for English and Vernacular copies respectively.

VI. (i) Every application for a copy of a record shall be accompanied by a deposit in cash of a sum which shall not be less than the cost of preparing and certifying such copy under these rules.

(ii) If the application is not accompanied by the cash deposit required by the preceding clause of this rule, it shall be returned to the person presenting it, with an endorsement recorded thereon stating the amount of the deposit required; such endorsement shall be dated and signed by the officer returning the application, and a note of the date of return shall be made in the register.

(iii) The Court-fee stamp, if any, which the law requires to be affixed to the copy, shall not be taken from the applicant until the copy is ready for delivery; but, at the time of receiving his application, the applicant should be informed of the value of the Court-fee (if any) required, and that, unless it is furnished when the copy is ready for delivery, the copy will not be delivered to him.

Fees.

VII. (i) For every copy there shall be charged a copying fee and a record office fee.

Scale of fees and disposal of fees realized.

(ii) The record office fee will be a sum charged in addition to the copying fee, and equal to one-fourth of its amount.

(iii) The following shall be the maximum scale of copying fees:—

English copies.

	Rs.
Two hundred words or under	0 6
Every additional 100 words or under	0 2

Vernacular copies.

R. a.

Two hundred words or under	0 3
Every additional 100 words or under	0 1

These rates include the cost of the paper which will be supplied by the copyist. For field maps, boundary maps, tabular work, etc., a special charge will be fixed by the officer granting the copy, subject to the approval of the Court a copy of whose record is applied for.

(iv) When an applicant requires his copy to be furnished urgently, an extra fee shall be charged, which shall be equal in amount to the copying fee when this does not exceed eight annas, and eight annas in every other case.

Note. For the purposes of the above rule the extra fee to be charged shall be for each paper copied which can properly be regarded as a separate paper, e.g., every deposition of a witness or written statement of a party or order of the Court is a separate paper. In cases of doubt as to whether a paper is separate or not, the presiding officer of the Court or officer shall decide.

(v) When a copy is required under the rules to be given to any person free of cost, the copying and Record office fees shall be charged to Judicial contingencies. The copying fees shall in that case be paid at the following rates:—

English copies.

R. a.

For the first two hundred words or under	4
For every additional hundred words or under	0 1

Vernacular copies.

For the first two hundred words or under	0 3
For every additional hundred words or under	0 1

(vi) Subject to the provisions of these rules, all copying fees which shall be levied shall be expended on the making, revising, and attesting of copies of records applied for.

(vii) Every record office fee levied under this rule shall be credited to the Record Office Fund of the Court concerned, in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating such funds.

Appointment, remuneration, and removal of copyists.

VIII. (i) District or Sessions Judges in regard to their own Courts, Judges of Courts of Small Causes and Cantonment Magistrates in regard to their own Courts, and Deputy Commissioners in regard to all Courts, whether Civil or Criminal, within their respective districts, whose records are kept in the District Record office, may engage a sufficient number of persons qualified to make copies of records for the purpose of being supplied to persons entitled thereto. The number of persons so engaged should be strictly limited to actual requirements for the work of copying, in either the English or Urdu language, as the case may be.

Appointment and removal of copyists.
Register of copies.

(ii) Persons engaged as copyists should be—

(a) of assured good character; and

(b) competent to write fast and well in English or Urdu, as the case may be.

(iii) A register (in the Form B annexed to these rules) of copyists appointed shall be maintained in the office of every authority empowered to engage copyists under this rule. The name of every person engaged as a copyist shall be entered in such register, together with the further particulars therein prescribed.

IX. Copyists will be remunerated from the fees realized under these rules. Subject to the provisions of these rules, every copyist will receive nine-tenths of the entire copying fee taken in respect of the copy made, from the person applying for it. In no case should the fees realized for making copies be placed in a fund, and under no circumstances should a copyist be entertained at a fixed salary.

Remuneration of copyists.

X. (i) The authority engaging a copyist may, at any time, and without assigning any reason for so doing, dispense with his services.

Control over copyists.

(ii) Any copyist who is found to be—

(a) unfit to be entrusted with judicial records for the purpose of his duties;

(b) careless or negligent in the performance of his duties; or

(c) inefficient or otherwise unsuitable,

may be dismissed by the authority engaging him. The appointing authority may, for any sufficient reason, reduce the rate of remuneration allowed to any copyist under rule IX, to such rate, and for such period, as such authority may deem fit.

Manner of making copies.

XI. Every copy made under these rules shall be written—

How copies are to be written.

- (a) in a fair legible hand ;
- (b) upon paper of the prescribed quality ;
- (c) with ink of good quality ; and
- (d) in the case of copies made in the Urdu language, in the nastalik character.

XII. Every copy made under these rules shall show in the margin at the proper places, the page-numbers of the original record.

These directions refer to both English and vernacular copies, and should be observed whether the copy applied for is that of the judgment or order and decree, or that of the whole or any portion of the record.

Note.—The object of these marginal page numbers is to facilitate reference from one copy to another, or from a copy to the original.

XIII. Every copy of a judgment or order of a Civil Court shall commence with a heading containing the following information :—

- (a) the Court by which the suit or appeal was decided, giving the name of, and powers exercised by the presiding officer, and also where such Court is an Appellate Court, the name and official designation of, and the powers exercised by, the officer whose order was appealed, and the date of that order,
- (b) the date of institution of the suit or appeal as the case may be,
- (c) the name, parentage, trade or occupation, and place of residence (stating tahsil and district) of each plaintiff and defendant,
- (d) the value of the suit or appeal for purposes of jurisdiction,
- (e) a full and correct statement of the nature and value of the subject matter of the suit or appeal, as set forth in the plaint or appeal and, in suits regarding land or other immoveable property, the name of the City, town or village, and the tahsil and district within which the property in dispute is situate.

XIV. Every copy of a judgment or order of a Criminal Court shall commence with a heading containing the following information :—

- (a) the Court by which the case was decided, with the name of, and powers exercised by, the presiding officer, and also where such court is an Appellate Court, the name of, and powers exercised by, the officer whose order was appealed, and the date of that order,
- (b) the name, parentage, trade or occupation, and place of residence (stating tahsil and district) of the complainant and accused,
- (c) the offence committed and sentence passed.

XV. (i) The copies supplied should be limited to the records applied for ; but in cases in which the Appellate Court has made an order of remand, a copy of the order of remand and of the return order made thereto, should accompany the copy of the final order whether specifically mentioned in the application or not.

(ii) If the application includes the whole or any portion of the record, in addition to the judgment or order, and decree, the copy of the judgment or order and decree shall be first made and supplied, and then the copy of the other portion of the record applied for. In no case should the delivery of a copy of the judgment or order and decree (required for purposes of appeal) be delayed until copies of other portions of the record applied for can be made and delivered.

(iii) Copies of copies should not be granted unless expressly asked for as such. When granted, they should be expressly marked as copies of copies.

XVI. In granting copies of records, if the copies cover more than one sheet of paper, the sheets of paper on which the copy is made should be stitched together in book form and should not be attached one to the end of another so as to form a roll.

XVII. After the copy has been made and before it has been revised and attested, the following particulars shall be endorsed thereon and in the prescribed register, in the case of copies made in the English language, in English, and in the case of copies made in Urdu in that language :—

- (a) the number of the application on the register ;
- (b) the date of presentation of the application for a copy ;
- (c) the date of return for deposit of copying and record fees, if so returned ;

- (d) the date of making the required deposit of copying and record fees ;
 - (e) the number of words copied ;
 - (f) the amount paid as copying fees ;
 - (g) the amount paid as record fees ;
 - (h) the name of the copyist ;
 - (i) the date on which the copy was completed by the copyist.
- The copy will then be revised and attested in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

Appointment, duties, and remuneration of revising and attesting officers.

XVII. Every copy shall be revised and attested, in the case of District or Session Courts, Courts of Small Causes, Courts of Cantonment Magistrates, or Courts at a distance of more than ten mile from head-quarters, by the chief ministerial officer for the time being of such Court, and in the case of the Courts of District Magistrates and Magistrates subordinate to them, and of Courts subordinate to District Judges, by the Head Clerk for the time being of the English Office of the Deputy Commissioner, the Sarishtedar for the time being of the Vernacular Office of the Deputy Commissioner or such other officer as the Deputy Commissioner may, from time to time, appoint in that behalf :

Provided that no officer other than a paid officer of Government and no officers occupying a position lower than that of Reader to a Court shall be appointed under this rule :

Provided further that in the case of any copy certified by an officer other than the chief ministerial officer or Head Clerk or Sarishtedar aforesaid, such copy shall, before delivery to the person applying for the same, be countersigned by a Judicial Officer. Such Judicial Officer shall, if possible, be the Judicial Officer of the Court of whose record a copy is being issued.

Duties of revising and attesting officer.

these rules—

XIX. (i) Every revising and attesting officer shall, before he attests any copy in the manner prescribed by

- (a) personally compare every such copy with the original record from which it has been made ;
- (b) attest every alteration made in such copy, by initialing the same ;
- (c) write the date and his initials across the court-fee label or labels (if any) affixed to the copy ;
- (d) examine and initial the endorsements made upon the copy in accordance with these rules ;
- (e) examine the headings and form of the copy and see that they are in accordance with the law, rules and directions applying to such copy ;
- (f) see that the copy is written on the prescribed quality of paper with ink of good quality and in neat and legible hand-writing ; and
- (g) see that the provisions of the law and of the rules and orders of the High Court have been in all respects complied with.

(ii) When any copy is found to be in all respects correct and ready for delivery to the applicant, the revising and attesting officer shall endorse thereupon a certificate written dated, subscribed, and sealed in the manner prescribed by section 76 of the Indian Evidence Act. If the copy comprises more than one sheet of paper, the revising and attesting officer shall endorse the word "attested" on every such sheet, and shall enter his initials and the date thereunder.

(iii) The officer attesting copies shall before any copy is delivered, endorse thereupon the date of such delivery, and cancel the court-fee labels (if any) affixed to it, by punching out a portion of the label in such manner as to remove neither the figure head nor that part of the label upon which its value is expressed. He shall then write the date and his own signature across each such label, so that some portion of such signature shall appear upon the paper to which the label is affixed as well as on the label itself.

Copy unfit to issue.

XX. In the event of any copy being found to be unfit for issue by reason that it—

- (a) has not been clearly, legibly, or neatly written ;
- (b) is not in the prescribed form or on paper of the prescribed quality ;
- (c) is so incorrect that revision has rendered it unfit for issue ;
- (d) does not conform to the rules and orders of the High Court ; or
- (e) is otherwise incomplete, defective, or open to objection,

the revising and attesting officer shall forthwith write the word "cancelled" across the copy, and shall direct the copyist who prepared it to make a fresh copy without further charge. Such copyist shall forthwith comply with the order.

Conduct of copyist. XXI. Revising and attesting officers should bring to the notice of the head of the office the conduct of any copyist who contravenes any of these rules.

Remuneration of revising and attesting officers. XXII. The revising and attesting officer shall receive, by way of remuneration, one-tenth of the entire copying fee taken in respect of the copy attested from the person applying for it:

Provided that where the revising and attesting officer is the chief ministerial officer of a Court, the presiding officer of such Court, and, in any other case, the Deputy Commissioner may, for any sufficient reason, withhold the whole or any portion of the remuneration allowed by this rule in respect of a particular copy or in respect of all copies for a specified period.

Deductions to be credited of Government.

XXIII. All sums deducted or withheld from the remuneration of copyists or revising and attesting officers, under the provisions of rules X and XXII, shall be paid into the Treasury to the credit of Government.

Delivery of copies.

XXIV. (i) When any copy has been duly made, revised, and attested, and is in all respects complete and ready for delivery, the copyist will present it to the officer entrusted with the duty of receiving applications for copies. Such officer will call for the applicant, and, if it has not already been supplied, demand the Court-fee (if any) leviable in respect of such copy, and shall cause the same to be affixed to the copy and to be duly cancelled, and the date and initials of the revising officer to be written across each Court-fee label so affixed. The copy shall then be delivered to the applicant.

(ii) If the cash deposited under rule VI (i) is in excess of the fees required by these rules the excess shall be returned to the depositor.

(iii) Should the applicant not be present when first called to receive the copy, it shall be filed along with the application and shall be delivered to the applicant on his attending to receive it at any time within one month from the date on which it was ready for delivery. Should the applicant fail to present himself within such period, the copy shall not be given to him without a fresh application on the prescribed Court-fee.

XXV. The cause of delay in preparing a copy beyond the third day from the date of application should invariably be noted on the copy, and should be certified to by the revising and attesting officer.

Supervision.

XXVI. (i). An Assistant Commissioner, Extra-Assistant Commissioner, or Treasury Officer, should be placed in immediate charge of the copying department at the head-quarters of each district, under the Deputy Commissioner.

(ii) The officer in charge should be required—

- (a) to examine the registers of applications for copies frequently;
- (b) to see that copies are supplied within three days of the date of application unless he shall, for sufficient reason, have allowed further time in any particular case;
- (c) to see that Court-fees have been correctly affixed to copies;
- (d) to supervise the copyists and revising and attesting officers in the discharge of their duties, and report any dereliction of duty on the part of any member of the establishment to the Deputy Commissioner; and
- (e) to take measures to have the rules promptly and carefully complied with.

(iii) The Deputy Commissioner should occasionally inspect the register of applications for copies.

(iv) In the case of District or Sessions Courts, Small Cause Courts or other Courts granting copies of records without reference to the District Record office, the presiding officer of the Court should exercise supervision over the copying department in the manner specified in clause (ii) of this rule.

Copies of records before the High Court.

XXVII. Whenever an application is made for a copy of a record in a case in which the files are before the High Court, the application should be forwarded to the High Court for disposal. If the application be made under section 548 of the Criminal Procedure Code, by a prisoner in jail, and be submitted with grounds of appeal or for revision, the petition of appeal or for revision should be forwarded at the same time.

B.—Inspection of Records.

- (1) Records of decided cases shall be open to the inspection of the parties interested in those cases, subject to the control of the head of the office.
- (2) Records of pending cases shall be open to the inspection of the parties or their pleaders (if pleaders have been authorised by the Chief Commissioner to appear in the case concerned) or agents alone, subject to the general control of the Judge of the Court in which the case is pending.

N. B.—A party who has been ordered to file a written statement is not entitled without the special permission of the Court, to inspect a written statement filed by another party until he has filed his own.

Inspection shall not be allowed on the day fixed for the hearing of the case without the special permission of the presiding Judge.

- (3) The inspection of records shall be made in the Record room between the hours of 11 A.M. and 4 P.M. on week days in the presence of the Record-keeper or one of his assistants.
 - (4) Applications for the inspection of records shall be made in writing on plain paper, and shall distinctly specify the records which it is desired to inspect.
- The application shall be addressed to the head of the office concerned and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

- (5) The following fee shall be paid for inspection, vis.—

For the first hour or part of an hour	R	a.
For each subsequent hour or part of an hour	1	0

If more time than is covered by the fee paid with the application be occupied in the inspection, the balance shall be paid at the close of the inspection.

Note 1.—No fees should be charged for the inspection of files in Civil and Criminal cases by the Government pleader or Public Prosecutor, as such or by any Counsel appearing for Government in Civil or Criminal cases.

- (6) A separate application shall be made and separate fee paid for each record inspection of which is desired, unless the records are so closely connected that in the opinion of the head of the office or presiding Judge, they may be regarded as one, in which case one application and one fee will suffice.
- (7) If any record for inspection of which an order has been given is incomplete or not in the Record room, or for any sufficient cause, not available for inspection, the officer entrusted with this duty shall direct refund of the fee and shall pass such order regarding future inspection as he may think fit.
- (8) The copying of any document or paper of a record during inspection and the use of pen and ink are strictly prohibited. Pencil and paper may be used for the purpose of taking notes, but no mark shall be made on any record or paper inspected. Infringement or attempted infringement of this rule shall deprive the person infringing of the right of inspection. The fee paid will also be forfeited.
- (9) The fees realized under these rules shall be credited monthly into the Treasury.
- (10) The District Officer may, with the sanction of the Chief Commissioner of British Baluchistan, appoint any establishment necessary for the inspection of records, provided the cost does not exceed the income derived from inspection fees.

N. B.—Official correspondence about Judicial cases is not to be considered as part of the record, nor is it open to inspection.

The notification of the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner of British Baluchistan No. 5860, dated the 23rd September 1892, is hereby cancelled.

C. ARCHER, Lieut.,-Colonel,
Judicial Commissioner in British Baluchistan.

THE JUDICIAL COMMISSIONER IN BALUCHISTAN.NOTIFICATION.

Dated Quetta, the 1st November 1909.

No. 742-J.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 554 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), as applied to the territories administered by the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan, as such Agent, and by section 90 (2) (b) of the Baluchistan Agency Civil Justice Law, 1896, and with the previous sanction of the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor General, the Judicial Commissioner is pleased to make the following rules to regulate the procedure relating to the grant of copies and to the inspection of records in the subordinate Courts :—

A.—Grant of copies of Records.

Definitions.

1. In these rules—

“Record” means and includes any portion of a record, and any document, map, plan, or other paper attached to or forming part of the record of any suit or appeal, inquiry, or trial or other judicial proceeding in any Civil or Criminal Court.

N.B.—Correspondence that has not formed part of the judicial proceedings in Court is not to be considered part of the record.

“Copyist” means and includes any person engaged for the purpose of making a copy or copies of any such record.

Provisions for supply of copies.

II. (i) Subject to all proper exceptions and to these rules, due provision shall be made for the supply of copies of the records of every Court, whether Civil or Criminal, other than the High Court or a District or Sessions Court—

(a) at the head-quarters of the district in which such Court is situated, and

(b) subject to the provisions of the next clause of this rule, at the place of sitting of every such Court which is situated at a distance of more than 10 miles from such head-quarters.

(ii) Copies of the records of a Court of Small Causes, or Cantonment Magistrate, or of a Court the place of sitting of which is situated at a distance of more than ten miles from the head-quarters of the district may subject to all proper exceptions and to these rules be supplied at the place of sitting of such Court—

(a) while the case, a copy of the record of which is applied for is pending ;

(b) at any time before the record has been forwarded to the District Record office :

Provided that in the case of a Court of Small Causes or a Court of a Cantonment Magistrate having a record office of its own, copies of records of such Court may be supplied at the place of sitting of such Court at any time.

(iii) Copies of the records of a District or Sessions Court shall be supplied at the ordinary place of sitting of such Court.

Persons entitled to copies of records.

III. (i) A copy of a record may be granted in the manner prescribed by these rules to any person who, under the law for the time being in force, is entitled to receive it.

(ii) A plaintiff or a defendant in a suit is entitled, at any stage of the suit, to obtain copies of the record of the suit, including exhibits which have been put in and finally accepted by the Court as evidence.

N.B.—A party who has been ordered to file a written statement is not entitled without the special permission of the Court to take a copy of a written statement filed by another party until he has first filed his own.

(iii) A stranger to the suit may, after decree, obtain, as of course, copies of the plaint, written statements, affidavits, and petitions filed in the suit ; and may, for sufficient reason shown to the satisfaction of the Court, obtain copies of any such documents, before decree.

(iv) A stranger to the suit may also obtain, as of course, copies of judgments decrees, or orders, at any time after they have been passed or made.

(v) A stranger to the suit has no right to obtain copies of exhibits put in evidence, except with the consent of the person by whom they were produced.

Applications for copies of records.

IV. (i) An application for a copy of a record may be made by any person entitled to a copy under rule III, or by any person authorised by any such person to act in his behalf.

NOTE.—The authority need not necessarily consist of a formal power-of-attorney, but the officer authorised to receive and deal with applications for copies must satisfy himself in such manner as he considers sufficient that the person applying is either himself entitled to the copy applied for under rule III or has in fact been authorised to act for a person who is so entitled.

(ii) Applications for copies of records of District or Sessions Courts will be received by the chief ministerial officer for the time being of the Court, or other officer for the time being appointed by the District or Sessions Judge in that behalf.

(iii) Applications for copies of the records of Courts of Small Causes, or of Cantonment Magistrates, will be received by the chief ministerial officer for the time being of such Court: provided the record, a copy of which is applied for, is at the time of the application, in the possession of such Court.

(iv) Applications for copies of records of any Civil or Criminal Court other than the High Court, not provided for in clauses (ii) and (iii) of this rule, will be received, in the case of applications made at the head-quarters of a district, by the officer (being a Judicial officer) for the time being appointed by the Political Agent in that behalf; and in the case of applications for copies of records of Magistrates or Munsifs whose Courts are situated at a distance of more than ten miles from the head-quarters of the district, and made to such Courts, by the Magistrate or Munsif a copy of whose record is applied for:

Provided that an application for a copy of a record of the High Court or of a District or Sessions Court, made to a Lower Court or Office in which the record may be at the time of the application, shall not be complied with without the permission of the Court concerned:

Provided further that applications for copies made to Magistrates or Munsifs whose Courts are situated at a distance of more than ten miles from the head-quarters of the district, shall be returned for presentation at the head-quarters of the district, if the record has been transmitted to the District record office.

Endorsement to be made on application, and registration thereof.

V. (i) Every officer receiving an application for a copy of a record shall—

- (a) endorse or cause to be endorsed thereon the date of presentation;
- (b) initial the endorsement;
- (c) cause the application to be registered as hereinafter provided; and
- (d) cause the Court-fee thereon to be cancelled according to law.

(ii) A register (in the Form A annexed to these rules) shall be maintained in which every application for a copy of a record shall, upon presentation, be forthwith entered by or under the orders of the officer receiving the same. Separate registers shall be kept for English and Vernacular copies respectively.

VI. (i) Every application for a copy of a record shall be accompanied by a deposit in cash of a sum which shall not be less than the cost of preparing and certifying such copy under these rules.

Deposit to be made in cash.

(ii) If the application is not accompanied by the cash deposit required by the preceding clause of this rule, it shall be returned to the person presenting it, with an endorsement recorded thereon stating the amount of the deposit required; such endorsement shall be dated and signed by the officer returning the application, and a note of the date of return shall be made in the register.

(iii) The Court-fee stamp, if any, which the law requires to be affixed to the copy, shall not be taken from the applicant until the copy is ready for delivery; but, at the time of receiving his application, the applicant should be informed of the value of the Court-fee (if any) required, and that, unless it is furnished when the copy is ready for delivery, the copy will not be delivered to him.

Fees.

Scale of fees and disposal of fees realised.

VII. (i) For every copy there shall be charged a copying fee and a record office fee.

(ii) The record office fee will be a sum charged in addition to the copying fee, and equal to one-fourth of its amount.

(iii) The following shall be the maximum scale of copying fees:—

English copies.

Two hundred words or under	R	a.	p.
Every additional 100 words or under	0	2	0

Vernacular copies.

Two hundred words or under	0	3	0
Every additional 100 words or under	0	1	0

These rates include the cost of the paper which will be supplied by the copyist. For field maps, boundary maps, tabular work, & a special charge will be fixed by the officer granting the copy, subject to the approval of the Court a copy of whose record is applied for.

(iv) When an applicant requires his copy to be furnished urgently an extra fee shall be charged, which shall be equal in amount to the copying fee when this does not exceed eight annas, and eight annas in every other case.

Note.—For the purposes of the above rule the extra fee to be charged shall be for each paper copied which can properly be regarded as a separate paper e.g., every deposition of a witness or written statement of a party, or order of the Court is a separate paper. In cases of doubt as to whether a paper is separate or not the presiding officer of the Court or office shall decide.

(v) When a copy is required under the rules to be given to any person free of cost, the Copying and Record office fees shall be charged to Judicial contingencies. The copying fees shall in that case be paid at the following rates :—

English copies.

	R	a.	p
For the first two hundred words or under	0	4	0
For every additional hundred words or under	0	1	0

Vernacular copies

For the first two hundred words or under	0	3	0
For every additional hundred words or under	0	1	0

(vi) Subject to the provisions of these rules, all copying fees which shall be levied shall be expended on the making, revising, and attesting of copies of records applied for.

(vii) Every record office fee levied under this rule shall be credited to the Record Office Fund of the Court concerned, in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating such funds.

Appointment, remuneration, and removal of copyists.

VIII. (i) District or Sessions Judges in regard to their own Courts, Judges of Appointment and removal of copyists. Courts of Small Causes and Cantonment Magistrates in Register of copies. regard to their own Courts, and Political Agents in regard to all Courts, whether Civil or Criminal, within their respective districts, whose records are kept in the District Record office, may engage a sufficient number of persons qualified to make copies of records for the purpose of being supplied to persons entitled thereto. The number of persons so engaged should be strictly limited to actual requirements for the work of copying, in either the English or Urdu language, as the case may be.

(ii) Persons engaged as copyists should be—

(a) of assured good character ; and

(b) competent to write fast and well in English or Urdu, as the case may be.

(iii) A register (in the form B annexed to these rules) of copyists appointed shall be maintained in the office of every authority empowered to engage copyists under this rule. The name of every person engaged as a copyist shall be entered in such register, together with the further particulars therein prescribed.

IX. Copyists will be remunerated from the fees realized under these rules. Subject to the provisions of these rules, every copyist will receive nine-tenths of the entire copying fee taken in respect of the copy made, from the person applying for it. In no case should the fees realized for making copies be placed in a fund, and under no circumstances should a copyist be entertained at a fixed salary.

X. (i) The authority engaging a copyist may, at any time, and without assigning any reason for so doing, dispense with his services.

(ii) Any copyist who is found to be—

(a) unfit to be entrusted with judicial records for the purpose of his duties,

(b) careless or negligent in the performance of his duties ; or

(c) inefficient or otherwise unsuitable,

may be dismissed by the authority engaging him. The appointing authority may, for any sufficient reason, reduce the rate of remuneration allowed to any copyist under rule IX, to such rate, and for such period, as such authority may deem fit.

Manner of making copies.

XI. Every copy made under these rules shall be written—

(a) in a fair legible hand,

(b) upon paper of the prescribed quality,

(c) with ink of good quality, and

(d) in the case of copies made in the Urdu language, in the nastalik character.

XII. Every copy made under these rules shall show in the margin at the proper places, the page-numbers of the original record.

These directions refer to both English and Vernacular copies, and should be observed whether the copy applied for is that of the judgment or order and decree, or that of the whole or any portion of the record.

Note.—The object of these marginal page-numbers is to facilitate reference from one copy to another, or from copy to the original.

XIII. Every copy of a judgment or order of a Civil Court shall commence with a heading containing the following information :—

- (a) The Court by which the suit or appeal was decided giving the name of, and powers exercised by, the presiding officer, and also where such Court is an Appellate Court, the name and official designation of, and the powers exercised by, the officer whose order was appealed, and the date of that order.
- (b) The date of institution of the suit or appeal as the case may be.
- (c) The name, parentage, trade or occupation, and place of residence (stating tahsil and district) of each plaintiff and defendant.
- (d) The value of the suit or appeal for purposes of jurisdiction.
- (e) A full and correct statement of the nature and value of the subject-matter of the suit or appeal, as set forth in the plaint or appeal and in suits regarding land or other immoveable property, the name of the city, town or village, and the tahsil and district within which the property in dispute is situate.

XIV. Every copy of a judgment or order of a Criminal Court shall commence with a heading containing the following information :—

- (a) The court by which the case was decided, with the name of, and powers exercised by, the presiding officer, and also where such Court is an Appellate Court, the name of, and powers exercised by, the officer whose order was appealed, and the date of that order.
- (b) The name, parentage, trade or occupation, and place of residence (stating tahsil and district) of the complainant and accused.
- (c) The offence committed and sentence passed.

Copies to be limited to records applied for. Exception to this rule. Copies of copies.

XV. (i) The copies supplied should be limited to the records applied for; but in cases in which the Appellate Court has made an order of remand, a copy of the order of remand and of the return order made thereto should accompany the copy of the final order whether specifically mentioned in the application or not.

(ii) If the application includes the whole or any portion of the record, in addition to the judgment or order, and decree, the copy of the judgment or order and decree shall be first made and supplied, and then the copy of the other portion of the record applied for. In no case should the delivery of a copy of the judgment or order and decree (required for purposes of appeal) be delayed until copies of other portions of the record applied for can be made and delivered.

(iii) Copies of copies should not be granted unless expressly asked for as such. When granted, they should be expressly marked as copies of copies.

XVI. In granting copies of records, if the copies cover more than one sheet of paper the sheets of paper on which the copy is made should be stitched together in book form and should not be attached one to the end of another so as to form a roll.

Sheets to be stitched.

XVII. After the copy has been made, and before it has been revised and attested the following particulars shall be endorsed thereon and in the prescribed register, in the case of copies made in the English language, in English, and in the case of copies made in Urdu, in that language :—

Endorsements to be made on copy.

- (a) the number of the application on the register ;
- (b) the date of presentation of the application for a copy ;
- (c) the date of return for deposit of copying and record fees, if so returned ;
- (d) the date of making the required deposit of copying and record fees ;
- (e) the number of words copied ;
- (f) the amount paid as copying fees ;
- (g) the amount paid as record fee ;
- (h) the name of the copyist ;
- (i) the date on which the copy was completed by the copyist.

The copy will then be revised and attested in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

Appointment, duties, and remuneration of revising and attesting officers.

XVIII. Every copy shall be revised and attested, in the case of District or Sessions Courts, Courts of Small Causes, Courts of Cantonment Magistrates, or Courts at a distance of more than ten miles from head-quarters, by the chief ministerial officer for the time being of such Court, and, in the case of the Courts of District Magistrates and Magistrates subordinate to them, and of Courts subordinate to District Judges, by the Head Clerk for the time being of the Revision and attestation of copies.

English Office of the Political Agent, the Sareshtedar for the time being of the Vernacular Office of the Political Agent or such other officer as the Political Agent may, from time to time, appoint in that behalf:

Provided that no officer other than a paid officer of Government and no officer occupying a position lower than that of Reader to a Court shall be appointed under this rule:

Provided further that in the case of any copy certified by an officer other than the chief ministerial officer or Head Clerk or Sareshtedar aforesaid, such copy shall, before delivery to the person applying for the same, be countersigned by a Judicial Officer. Such Judicial Officer shall, if possible, be the Judicial Officer of the Court of whose record a copy is being issued.

XXIX. (i) Every revising and attesting officer shall, before he attests any copy in the manner prescribed by these rules—

Duties of revising and attesting officers.

- (a) personally compare every such copy with the original record from which it has been made;
- (b) attest every alteration made in such copy, by initialling the same;
- (c) write the date and his initials across the Court-fee label or labels (if any) affixed to the copy;
- (d) examine and initial the endorsements made upon the copy in accordance with these rules;
- (e) examine the headings and form of the copy and see that they are in accordance with the law, rules, and directions applying to such copy;
- (f) see that the copy is written on the prescribed quality of paper, with ink of good quality and in neat and legible hand-writing; and
- (g) see that the provisions of the law and of the rules and orders of the High Court have been in all respects complied with.

(ii) When any copy is found to be in all respects correct and ready for delivery to the applicant, the revising and attesting officer shall endorse thereupon a certificate written, dated, subscribed, and sealed in the manner prescribed by section 76 of the Indian Evidence Act. If the copy comprises more than one sheet of paper, the revising and attesting officer shall endorse the word "attested" on every such sheet, and shall enter his initials and the date thereunder.

(iii) The officer attesting copies shall, before any copy is delivered, endorse thereupon the date of such delivery, and cancel the Court-fee labels (if any) affixed to it, by punching out a portion of the label in such a manner as to remove neither the figure-head nor that part of the label upon which its value is expressed. He shall then write the date and his own signature across each such label so that some portion of such signature shall appear upon the paper to which the label is affixed as well as on the label itself.

XX. In the event of any copy being found to be unfit for issue by reason that it—

Copy unfit to issue.

- (a) has not been clearly, legibly or neatly written;
- (b) is not in the prescribed form or on paper of the prescribed quality;
- (c) is so incorrect that revision has rendered it unfit for issue;
- (d) does not conform to the rules and orders of the High Court; or
- (e) is otherwise incomplete, defective, or open to objection;

the revising and attesting officer shall forthwith write the word "cancelled" across the copy, and shall direct the copyist who prepared it to make a fresh copy without further charge. Such copyist shall forthwith comply with the order.

XXI. Revising and attesting officers should bring to the notice of the head of the office the conduct of any copyist who contravenes any of these rules.

Conduct of copyists.

XXII. The revising and attesting officer shall receive, by way of remuneration, one-tenth of the entire copying fee taken in respect of the copy attested from the person applying for it:

Remuneration of revising and attesting officers. Provided that where the revising and attesting officer is the chief ministerial officer of a Court, the presiding officer of such Court, and in any other case, the Political Agent may, for any sufficient reason, withhold the whole or any portion of the remuneration allowed by this rule in respect of a particular copy or in respect of all copies for a specified period.

Deductions to be credited to Government.

XXIII. All sums deducted or withheld from the remuneration of copyists or revising and attesting officers, under the provisions of rules X and XXII, shall be paid into the Treasury to the credit of Government.

Deductions under rules X and XXII to be credited to Government.

Delivery of copies.

XXIV. (i) When any copy has been duly made, revised, and attested, and is in all respects complete and ready for delivery, the copyist will present it to the officer entrusted with the duty of receiving applications for copies. Such officer will call for the applicant, and if it has not already been supplied, demand the Court-fee (if any) leviable in respect of such copy, and shall cause the same to be affixed to the copy and to be duly cancelled, and the date and initials of the revising officer to be written across each Court-fee label so affixed. The copy shall then be delivered to the applicant.

Delivery of copies.

(ii) If the cash deposited under Rule VI (i) is in excess of the fees required by these rules, the excess shall be returned to the depositor.

(iii) Should the applicant not be present when first called to receive the copy, it shall be filed along with the application and shall be delivered to the applicant on his attending to receive it at any time within one month from the date on which it was ready for delivery. Should the applicant fail to present himself within such period, the copy shall not be given to him without a fresh application on the prescribed Court-fee.

XXV. The cause of delay in preparing a copy beyond the third day from the date of application should invariably be noted on the copy, and should be certified to by the revising and attesting officer.

Delay in preparing copies.

Supervision.

XXVI. (i) An Assistant Political Agent, Extra Assistant Commissioner, or Treasury Officer should be placed in immediate charge of the copying department at the head-quarters of each district, under the Political Agent.

Supervision.

(ii) The officer in charge should be required—

- (a) to examine the registers of applications for copies frequently ;
- (b) to see that copies are supplied within three days of the date of application, unless he shall, for sufficient reason, have allowed further time in any particular case ;
- (c) to see that Court-fees have been correctly affixed to copies ;
- (d) to supervise the copyists and revising and attesting officers in the discharge of their duties, and report any dereliction of duty on the part of any member of the establishment to the Political Agent ; and
- (e) to take measures to have the rules promptly and carefully complied with.

(iii) The Political Agent should occasionally inspect the register of applications for copies.

(iv) In the case of District or Sessions Courts, Small Cause Courts or other Courts granting copies of records without reference to the District Record office, the presiding officer of the Court should exercise supervision over the copying department in the manner specified in clause (ii) of this rule.

Copies of records before the High Court.

XXVII. Whenever an application is made for a copy of a record in a case in which the files are before the High Court, the application should be forwarded to the High Court for disposal. If the application be made under section 548 of the Criminal Procedure Code, by a prisoner in jail, and be submitted with grounds of appeal or for revision, the petition of appeal or for revision should be forwarded at the same time.

If more time than is covered by the fee paid with the application be occupied in the inspection, the balance shall be paid at the close of the inspection.

Note 1.—No fees should be charged for the inspection of files in Civil and Criminal cases by the Government Pleader or Public Prosecutor, as such, or by any Counsel appearing for Government in Civil or Criminal cases.

- (6) A separate application shall be made and separate fee paid for each record inspection of which is desired, unless the records are so closely connected that, in the opinion of the head of the office or presiding Judge, they may be regarded as one, in which case one application and one fee will suffice.
- (7) If any record for inspection of which an order has been given is incomplete or not in the Record-room, or, for any sufficient cause, not available for inspection, the officer entrusted with this duty shall direct refund of the fee and shall pass such order regarding future inspection as he may think fit.
- (8) The copying of any document or paper of a record during inspection and the use of pen and ink are strictly prohibited. Pencil and paper may be used for the purpose of taking notes, but no mark shall be made on any record or paper inspected. Infringement or attempted infringement of this rule shall deprive the person infringing of the right of inspection. The fee paid will also be forfeited.
- (9) The fees realized under these rules shall be credited monthly into the Treasury.
- (10) The District Officer may, with the sanction of the Honourable the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan, appoint any establishment necessary for the inspection of records, provided the cost does not exceed the income derived from inspection fees.

N. B.—Official correspondence about Judicial cases is not to be considered as part of the record, nor is it open to inspection.

The notification of the Honourable the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan, No. 5859, dated the 23rd September 1892, is hereby cancelled.
